

Elmore, Dorothy

Dorothy Elmore Is
WAVE Enlistee

*June 13
1944*

Miss Dorothy Elmore, daughter of James Elmore, of Missouri, and sister of Paul Elmore, of the Antlers drug store, this city, has enlisted in the WAVES in San Francisco and on June 25 will leave for Hunter's college, New York to receive her basic training.

Miss Elmore, who has been employed at Zellerbach & Co. in the bay city, has resigned her position and has been enjoying a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Elmore, 419 Sixth street. In enlisting in the WAVES Miss Elmore is heeding the call of Uncle Sam who needs his nieces, as well as his nephews, in the service of their country. Paul Elmore, chairman of the enlistment committee for WAVES for Petaluma Post No. 28, American Legion, will be glad to give enlistment information to young women of the community.
